Bond met "Burnt" in Rome on Tuesday night when the Hollywood casts of Daniel Craig's "Spectre" and Bradley Cooper's foodie movie "Burnt" dined at the same chic spot.

Spies said Cooper and co-star Sienna Miller were in town to promote their movie and arrived at Roman hot spot Antica Pesa at 8:30 p.m. with 10 others from the film.

At 10:15 p.m., Craig and company, including Monica Bellucci, Christoph Waltz and "Spectre" director Sam Mendes arrived from the Italian premiere of the new 007 movie, one night after Prince William, Prince Harry and Kate Middleton saw its debut in London.

The genius director of 2014's Oscar-winning "The Great Beauty," Paolo Sorrentino, was with them.

The "Burnt" cast then headed to London themselves on Wednesday for a premiere in Leicester Square and an after-party at chef Marcus Wareing's latest restaurant, Tredwell's. Wareing consulted on the film and prepped all the dishes shown on-screen.

Also at the premiere were Alicia Vikander, Daniel Brühl, Sam Keeley and Omar Sy.
