Mick Jagger was spotted at Rome restaurant Antica Pesa with Giuseppe Tornatore, the director of “Cinema Paradiso,” Saturday night.

But there was no sign of Jagger’s new girlfriend, ballerina Melanie Hamrick.

Spies said Jagger and friends “took over a long table,” but the rocker called it an early night before his Sunday Rome gig.

Dining separately was John Mayer who opened for the Stones.

On Friday, Jared Leto, on tour with 30 Seconds to Mars, held court at his band’s after-party at the restaurant.
