Charlize Theron, who turns 38 tomorrow, started her birthday celebration in Rome this past weekend. She joined up with four friends for dinner Sunday at Antica Pesa, where they feted the South African actress with pasta, red wine and a champagne toast. Earlier, Theron and a few friends were spotted shopping near the Eternal City's Spanish Steps. "She stepped into several stores and looked like she was trying to find a handbag, but she didn't buy much," said an eyewitness.
