As the excitement surrounding the Academy Awards ramps up in LA, Richard Gere has been in Europe. Gere, who missed out on an Oscar nod for his sizzling performance in "Arbitrage," hosted a private screening of the flick in Rome on Tuesday. Later, he dined at restaurant Antica Pesa with friends including "Last Tango in Paris" director Bernardo Bertolucci. A source said, "It was like his own private pre-Oscar party." Gere will appear at the awards show with his "Chicago" cast as a tribute to musicals.
